Subject: TED- Style Talk Competition

Dear Parent,
Greetings from Woodlem Park School - Al Jurf.

We are pleased to inform you that students of Grades 9 to 12 have been given an excellent opportunity to participate in a TED-Style Talk Competition.

The first round of the competition will be held in school on Friday, 26/06/2026. Students may choose one of the topics given below or select a topic of their own interest.

Suggested Topics

- ☞ Why every school should have a nap period?
- ☞ AI my future boss or my future assistant?
- ☞ Why my phone knows me better than my Parents?
- ☞ Why humor matters more than we think?

Competition Guidelines• The speech should not exceed 3 minutes. No reference to any written document or soft copy is allowed during the screening.

Participants will be assessed on:

✓ Eye contact	✓ Content and originality
✓ Voice modulation	✓ Pronunciation and clarity
✓ Stage presence and overall impact	✓ Confidence
✓ Communication skills	✓ Body language

Important Rules

- No commercial promotions or advertising agendas.
- No political agendas or inflammatory rhetoric.
- No religious agendas or preaching.
- No misleading, inappropriate, or unscientific content.
- The attached competition guidelines must be followed strictly.

Interested students are requested to fill out the Google Form using the link below and submit their registration on or before Thursday, 25/06/2026.
